A very special Order of Australia Association tour, and morning tea

DATE: Monday 13 February 2012

TIME: 9.30 am to 11.50 am (Free parking under NGA and meet at main entrance desk)

PLACE: National Gallery of Australia, Parkes Place, Canberra ACT 2600

For the first time the National Gallery of Australia will give visitors the opportunity to experience Early and High Renaissance paintings by many of the greatest Italian artists of the 15th and 16th century. Raphael, Sandro Botticelli, Giovanni Bellini and Titian are some of the painters represented in this summer exhibition, which reveals an amazing gamut of talent and creative splendour. More than 70 works on canvas and wood panel will be on display only in Canberra. Guiding members and guests on this exclusive tour will be Lucina Ward, Curator International Painting and Sculpture. Morning tea in the Gandel Hall will be hosted by the National Gallery of Australia Foundation.

COST: $30.00 per person.

DRESS: Neat casual; Lapel pin to be worn.
