Author: Fred Harrington OAM, Victoria Branch Secretary

Victoria Branch is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information.

The personal information that you submit to us is collected in order to provide information services to you which in turn facilitates the provision of information, newsletters and events conducted by Order of Australia Branches and Regional Groups throughout Australia.

Victoria Branch may:

1. share the information with Order of Australia National Office other Branches and Regional Groups within Victoria.
2. disclose the information to outside parties, to the extent of information required for the Branch activity, in the course of undertaking Order of Australia activities and Programs; and
3. use the information with your consent or as otherwise required by law.

Victoria Branch will not disclose, sell or trade your personal information to any organisation other than as set out above.

You may access your information at any time.

If you do require access to your personal information, or have any concerns regarding its use please contact the Victoria Branch Secretary.

If any of the information we hold is incorrect, inaccurate or out-of-date, please contact us immediately and we will amend the information so held.

You have the option of not providing certain information requested. However, you should note that this may prevent OAA - Victoria Branch from providing membership information services to you and managing its various activities and Programs
