

THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA ASSOCIATION NEW SOUTH WALES BRANCH

JOHN LINCOLN YOUTH COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS FOR 2019

AN AWARD IN RECOGNITION OF OUTSTANDING STUDENT SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

To the Principal:

This Award recognises exceptional community service by a Year 11 or 12 student in either the NSW HSC, or the International Baccalaureate program. Nominations should provide a distinct description of the community involvement and contribution by the student, especially that extending beyond the school into the broader local, state, national or even international communities. Nominations are normally restricted to one per school.

The Nomination process comprises completion of the Nomination Form, together with a clear Citation, in no more than 600 words. The Citation should NOT be written by the student. Other relevant evidence may also be provided, but judging will be largely based on that outlined in the citation.

The Principal is also requested to provide a 50 to 100 word Abstract from the Citation. If the student's nomination is successful, the Abstract will be used in preparation of his/her introduction to the Governor of NSW at the Award ceremony, to be conducted at NSW Government House on Friday September 20.

Nominations should be typed or printed clearly to enable legible copies to be made for distribution to the judges. They may be submitted in hard copy by post to me at PO Box 21, North Richmond NSW 2754, or preferably by email to me at fkellehe@bigpond.net.au
